- To meet the educational, social, physical and emotional requirements of students;
- To comply with the law regarding data sharing;
- To comply with legislative or administrative requirements;
- To administer the school's governing body;
- To enable parents/guardians to be contacted in the case of emergency or in the case of school closure, or to inform parents of their child's educational progress or about school events, etc...
- With the aims of celebrating school and individual achievements and keeping a record of the history of the school, Michaelhouse may take photographs and recorded images of students to be shared in (for example) the Chronicle, school website, social media platforms, newsletters etc... always based on informed consent from parents or students of legal age.

In the case of CVs received, with the purpose of including the candidate.. in the selection process or to consider their application for future positions, Michaelhouse also collects information about staff and prospective staff when necessary for:

- Conducting selection processes;
- Assessing the suitability candidates for positions;
- Administration of staff records;
- Recruitment of staff;
- Administration of payroll, pensions and sick leave;
- Staff appraisal;
- Disciplinary procedures;
- Administration of human resources records.

6. WHO DOES MICHAELHOUSE SHARE YOUR PERSONAL DATA WITH?

Michaelhouse may be lawfully required to share personal information with relevant authorities or third parties as permitted on statutory grounds, to comply with legal obligations or on the basis of a specific consent given by the individual concerned.

Michaelhouse will ensure that, where relevant, contractual safeguards are implemented to ensure the protection of your personal data when disclosing your personal data to a third party.

Your personal data will not be rented nor sold to third parties.

7. CONSERVATION OF DATA

Personal information will only be retained for the period of time required to fulfil the purpose for which it was collected unless for a longer time for public interest archiving, scientific or historical research, statistical or alumni purposes. Once the personal information is no longer required or permitted to be retained for legal or business purposes, it will be destroyed or made anonymous.

8. YOUR RIGHTS

Under the POPIA you have rights regarding the processing of your personal data. These rights are, however, subject to certain exemptions and limitations.

You have the right to:

- Be informed, at the time when personal data is collected, about the data processing.
- Access the information we process and how we process it and also to obtain a copy of the personal data considering the legal limitations and exceptions.
- Ask for the erasing of the personal data we hold about you without undue delay considering the legal limitations and exceptions.
- Obtain the rectification of your personal data providing a supplementary statement.
- Obtain restriction of processing of your personal data when it is inaccurate, illegal, unnecessary or not verified, considering the legal limitations and exceptions.
- Obtain data portability of your personal information in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format. This allows the right to transmit that data to another controller without hindrance from the controller to which the personal data has been provided.
- Object to processing for direct marketing purposes.
- Withdraw consent at any time to the processing of your personal data. The withdrawal of consent shall not affect the lawfulness of processing based on consent before its withdrawal.

Therefore, in accordance with Section 5 of POPIA referring to rights of data subjects, individuals will be able to exercise their rights by sending a written specific request, along with a copy of their ID card, to Michaelhouse.

Data subjects have the right to request, where necessary, the correction, destruction or deletion of their personal information and to object, on reasonable grounds relating to their particular situation, to the processing of their personal information.

Data subjects have the right to a response to a request without undue delay from the date of the request although Michaelhouse can extend the time limit to respond to it if necessary. Any request made to Michaelhouse must be provided in clear and plain language.

Any request is subject to certain exemptions, limitations or contractual obligations. Data belonging to or identifying other individuals is exempt from right of access and will be subject to legal privilege. Michaelhouse cannot disclose confidential information pertaining to any of our staff.

9. CONSENT

You will have the right and possibility to withdraw your consent for any specific purpose granted at any given time without prejudice of the legality of processing according to the consent given before withdrawal.

10. STORING AND SECURING INFORMATION

Michaelhouse will use the appropriate technical and organisational measures to ensure the security, confidentiality, integrity and privacy of the personal data, and prevention of unauthorised access or unlawful processing or accidental loss, destruction or damage of the files.

11. COMPLAINTS

If you are not satisfied with our response, or if you would like to discuss any aspect of this privacy notice, or if you believe we are processing your personal information disregarding the data protection regulations in force, your claim can be sent to in writing to the school or to the Information Regulator addressed at
