Rector's Message

It has been a very good past week at school. The 1st XI won the Eston Night League T20 cricket competition beating DHS in the final, we had an excellent Michaelhouse Golf Championship at Gowrie on Sunday, and a very good Prefect Induction ceremony in chapel on Sunday – amongst many other things. I was on the road to attend Old Boy functions in Durban and Cape Town too – both well attended and most enjoyable.

I wanted to share with you a bit of the message from the Prefects Induction on Sunday.

Excerpt from the sermon on Leadership, 17th October 2026

We do not expect perfection from you. Just because you now have a badge, you have not suddenly become someone who must be perfect – and let me just clarify that none of you were elected because you were perfect before.

All I can ask is that you take seriously the pledge you have made today and that you continue to work out for yourselves how you can use your opportunity to lead, to help your Houses be happier, kinder, and better places than they already are. Every day you are building a legacy – and if nothing else, make sure that you leave the campsite better than you found it.

My challenge to you is to continue to reflect intentionally on your character and the choices you make. You have the most wonderful opportunity to flex your young leadership muscles. You have been given a voice – a platform – one that you have earned – and the question now is how you will use it. What will you do with this opportunity. What will your legacy be.

I want you to embrace this moment twofold: one, as an opportunity to develop your character intentionally and thoughtfully, and two, as an opportunity to serve your House and to make it a better place for all the boys in it.

I started off by saying that leadership is a combination of character and strategy. The strategy part of the role can be quite enjoyable as you help to shape a direction for your House – or in my case, for the school. But strategy and fulfilling your strategic objectives can be difficult and at times frustrating. Undoubtedly, there are times when progress can be slow and self-doubt creeps in, you wonder what difference you are really making and whether you are the right man for the job. These are things I grapple with every day.

MICHAELHOUSE

In those moments of self-doubt, I return to the other side of the coin – that of character – and I reflect on how I can use my character strengths to make a difference. I strip it all back to the fundamental purpose of leadership, and that is to help to make things better, and I set myself the simplest of targets: I set out at the start of my day with the express intention to make the lives of three people better. That may be by giving them the time to talk. It may be about resolving a problem for them. It may just be finding them and asking them how they are or dropping someone a note to encourage them.

When it is all stripped back, the job of a leader is to make things better: and little acts of kindness help make other people's lives better, but they are also affirming and reassuring to us as leaders. They are the little life-affirming choices that strengthen our character. They are the things that remind us that we can make a difference. And it is a reminder that it is in giving that we receive and that the best thing you can do for yourself is to be selfless.

One final quote – often attributed to Pope Francis but apparently, it is an old Sanskrit proverb:

"Rivers do not drink their own water; trees do not eat their own fruit; the sun does not shine on itself and flowers do not spread their fragrance for themselves. Living for others is a rule of nature. We are all born to help each other. No matter how difficult it is... Life is good when you are happy; but much better when others are happy because of you."

Congratulations to the following boys who have been selected as House Prefects:

On Wednesday evening we heard the very tragic news of a Grade 12 pupil at St Anne's who took her own life. With so many of our families having daughters at St Anne's and with many of our boys having close friends at the school, this was a dreadful shock to all of us. We feel deeply with the St Anne's community, and on Thursday the boys met in the chapel and the Chaplain led the school in prayer as we thought of everyone affected by this terrible tragedy. We have also offered practical support in the form of counselling expertise.

On Monday, in assembly, Mr Jarvis, our School Counsellor, addressed the boys:

Extending Our Heartfelt Condolences

First and foremost, our deepest sympathies and heartfelt support go to Rene's family, friends and the entire community of our sister school. Our role right now as the Michaelhouse school community is to hold them with love, compassion and respect.

Respect, Privacy and Care in Our Words

Respect means that that we refrain from speculation or gossip. Talking carelessly about situations we know little about only adds to the pain to those who are already hurting. When trying to process suicide, it is important to remember that there are no simplistic cause-and-effect explanations. The reasons behind suicide are complex, multifaceted and often involve challenges that build up over time. Jumping to conclusions around causes does not help. Rather our responsibility is to be thoughtful and approach one another with empathy.

Looking Out for One Another

In South Africa suicide remains one of the leading causes of non-natural death among young males aged 15 to 29, and males account for roughly 80% of those who take their own lives in our country. Because of this reality, our staff worry about you young men. Please will you do the following:

- If you are worried about yourself or a friend: reach out and speak to someone – a teacher, a counsellor, a parent, or another trusted adult.
- If recent events have caused you to think differently about yourself, school, or life: don't carry those thoughts alone. Talk to someone about what you are feeling.

Prioritizing Our Mental Health

This tragic event is a sober reminder that we must actively look after ourselves and one another. Our mental health matters. As men, we are not invincible or bulletproof and strength comes from being honest with trusted people about where we truly are mentally and emotionally.

A Call to Action: Uplifting Our Community

We encourage all of you today to take a moment and identify three people you can uplift:

- Someone to forgive, or someone from whom to seek forgiveness.
- Someone to offer a kind word or gesture of appreciation.
- Someone who might need a simple check-in or extra support.

At this time let us be reminded to be thoughtful about what we say out of respect to those who are hurting and to be kind to those around us.

Cultural Awards Evening

Behind every breathtaking performance and world-class showcase lies an extraordinary journey of dedication. At Michaelhouse, our cultural performers spend countless hours refining their craft - in rigorous ensemble rehearsals, group practices and the quiet intensity of solitary practice rooms. This passion often sparks an intriguing question: what elevates a cultural programme beyond a standard club or society?

The magic lies in mastery. Our cultural programmes deliver bespoke individual skill development that empowers our boys to shine on local, provincial, national and even international stages. Mirroring our first sports teams, each discipline features dedicated development squads alongside elite premier groups.

Beyond captivating audiences in external concerts, showcases and prestige competitions, the Houses ignite spirited rivalry in a vibrant series of Interhouse events throughout the year. The 2026 winners of Interhouse Music was Ralfe; Interhouse Art was won by Tatham and both Interhouse Debating and Chess was won by McCormick.

By placing in the top 3 across all disciplines, McCormick proudly claimed the 2026 Cultural Cup. On Saturday evening, 17 October, the Schlesinger Theatre was transformed for our annual Cultural Awards Evening and Gala Concert. The night brought together parents, staff and distinguished guests to applaud our boys who have reached the pinnacle of cultural achievement. Live performances from our Music Department added flair and elegance to the evening. A resounding tribute must go to the magnificent cohort of A Block boys who attended and performed. Their unwavering commitment and mentorship radiate true leadership, setting an inspiring standard for the younger boys following in their footsteps.

Canoeing

The annual Interschools relay took place on the Upper Umgeni River, with each boat racing 4.5km. In the U18 category, Michaelhouse secured 2nd place, narrowly losing out to Kearsney in an epic sprint finish.

Swimming

A small swimming squad took to the water at Aquapark on Friday afternoon for the first Swim Series Championship of the season, hosted by St Charles. This week's gala focused on sprint events.

The Swim Series aims to develop swimming among schools in the uMgungundlovu region, making the most of the world-class aquatic facility on our doorstep. Early-season galas provide swimmers with an opportunity to establish benchmark times, track their progress and work towards qualifying times for school swimming awards.

Notable performances included Samuel Gilson, who achieved an honours time of 31.10 seconds in the 50m breaststroke and Campbell Turner, who recorded a personal best of 1:01.11 in the 100m freestyle. As Academic Colours and Honours can only be awarded from B Block onwards, regardless of qualifying times, these performances are particularly encouraging as the season gets underway. The gala also featured a points-based competition across the events swum. Nate Cochran was the top-scoring senior, earning 24 out of a possible 27 points, while Samuel Gilson led the junior swimmers with an impressive 25 out of 27 points.

Congratulations to all our swimmers on their performances and on making a positive start to the season.

Our 1st team managed to secure a win against a formidable DHS side in a low-scoring game. Chad Abrahams scored 19 points to help the team to a 41–39 away victory. Team of the Week: Mr Ryan Ravenscroft – Head of Sport

What a week! The water polo teams had a good day, beating DHS on Wednesday. The tennis teams had a resounding win with the De Wet Cup. The 6 wins away at DHS for basketball should also be commended.

With all the outstanding sport over the past week, I simply cannot choose between two teams. The two teams sharing this award this week, were excellent. One being a team that has not beaten DHS away in almost living memory and the other for beating DHS in a huge final and who were crowned champions. The accolade of Team of the Week goes to both the 1st Basketball and Cricket Teams. Well done!

In June this year, Rick Grantham (Tatham, 1985) and Jago Fiore (Tatham, 2018) of Deal Leaders International hosted a networking evening at the Old Boys' Club. Deal Leaders is an M&A advisory firm that helps business owners with valuations, market research and selling their businesses.

Following the success of the networking evening, Deal Leaders International are hosting an event for Michaelhouse in Johannesburg.

Whether you own a business and are looking to network or want to connect with fellow members of the Michaelhouse community, it promises to be a valuable evening. Feel free to bring along a Michaelhouse friend or a colleague.
